Lector incipit:

Benedictio.

∇ Jube dōmne benedí-ce-re. Nóctem quiétam et fínem perféctum concédat nóbis Dóminus omnipotens. ℞ Amen.

Lectio brevis.

Frátres : Sóbri-i estóte, et vigiláte : quia adversárius véster diábolus,

The Lord Almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end. Amen.

Brethren, be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist, steadfast in the faith.

Psalm 4

Thanksgiving : The Lord raised him from the dead and made him worthy of all admiration (St. Augustine)

When I call, answer me, O God of Justice; from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me!

O men, how long will your hearts be closed, will you love what is futile and seek what is false?

It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves; the Lord hears me whenever I call him.

Fear him; do not sin: ponder on your bed and be still. Make justice your sacrifice and trust in the Lord.

'What can bring us happiness?' many say. Let the light of your face shine on us, O Lord.

You have put into my heart a greater joy than they have from abundance of corn and new wine.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once, For you alone Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 90

In the shelter of the Most High : Behold, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions (Luke 10:19)

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord : 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!

It is he who will free you from the snare of the fowler who seeks to destroy you; he will conceal you with his pinions and under his wings you will find refuge.

You will not fear the terror of the night nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the plague that prowls in the darkness nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand fall at your right, you, it will never approach; his faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look to see how the wicked are repaid, you who have said: 'Lord, my refuge!' and have made the Most High your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon.

Since he clings to me in love, I will free him; protect him for he knows my name. When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.' I will save him in distress and give him glory.

With length of life I will content him; I shall let him see my saving power.

Praise our God, all you his servants, and all who revere him, both great and small (Revelations 19:5)

O come, bless the Lord, all you who serve the Lord, who stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the Lord through the night.
May the Lord bless you from Sion, he who made both heaven and earth.

Hymn: Before the ending of the day.

Before the ending of the day, Creator of the world we pray,
That with thy wonted favour thou wouldst be our guard and keeper now.

From all ill dreams defend our eyes, from nightly fears and fantasies;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe, that no pollution we may know.

O Father, that we ask be done, through Jesus Christ thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee, doth live and reign eternally.
